

New Brunswick College of Craft & Design

We are the only college in Canada that focuses entirely on fine crafts and design.

We have done this since 1938. At the New Brunswick College of Craft and Design, we offer – no surprise – educational programs, workshops and learning opportunities in craft and design. It's all we do. It's that simple.

For the last 30 years, we have been part of the New Brunswick Community College system. This year (2011) marks our first as a college independent of that system, with our own administration, governance, educational partnerships, and financing and diploma-granting abilities.

At the same time, we've also been designated a Centre of excellence in the arts, and we will soon be expanding into the newly-restored Soldiers' Barracks, Queen Street, Fredericton, New Brunswick.
